Dec 25, 2011 · CHRISTMAS DAY December 25, 2011 Text: John 1:1-14 Theme: "By Flesh Bound and By Flesh Freed" Well here we are having that schizophrenic Christmas that we have every seven or so years What do we do with Christmas on a Sunday? On Christmas Day, we are supposed to celebrate Jesus taking on flesh and being born in a stable in Bethlehem, but yet

THINGS ARE BOUND TO GET BETTER flesh

Things are bound to get better? Really? As a holy, sin-hating Creator looks at the likes of us, how can anyone say or think that? Things are bound to get worse, because what does God's Law say? That sinners are bound to experience the frustrating shame of God's damnation and the excruciating sufferings of hell

The Struggle between Flesh and Spirit

The Struggle between Flesh and Spirit There's a bumper sticker that says, "Christians aren't perfect We're just forgiven" What it means is that we don't claim to be better than anyone else, because we're not We didn't earn our grace - that's what makes it grace Unfortunately, the bumper sticker also implies that nothing changed
